October witnessed stability – After a strong recovery in month of July and August of cumulative 12.5%, the Indian markets witnessed profit booking in September and October months, posting negative returns. More importantly, the FII's remained net sellers in October month and MFs continued to remain net buyers. The markets continued to correct in in the first half of October but in the second half it was nearing its all-time high levels post cautious commentary regarding the inflation and the measures to tackle it. Going ahead, we believe that the FII's will return owing to strong growth outlook compared to other global nations.

Hawkish commentary by US Fed members led to increased volatility in October– At the latest FOMC meeting, Federal Reserve Chair, Jerome Powell said that the FOMC's primary focus right now is to bring inflation back down to 2%. At the most recent meeting in November, the FED raised the target range for the federal funds rate by 75bps to 3.75% - 4.00% and it further intends to increase it to 4.40% by end of this year.

India's growth recovery continues –Although India's Q1FY23 YoY GDP growth of 13.5% appears low owing to the impact of the second wave in the base quarter (Q1FY22), it is pertinent to note that the economy has crossed the pre-pandemic level. As per data, economic activity is showing signs of broadening and the overall demand environment is improving leading to moderation in inflation further boosting positive sentiments. As for high frequency indicators, the PMI Manufacturing was observed at 55.1 in Sept'22, which continued to remain in line with the last 12-month average reading. GST collections at ₹1.52 lakh crores in Oct'22, marked the 8th consecutive month of ₹1.40 lakh crore+ collections.

Falling crude/commodity prices to provide relief – We believe that the current scenario of a weaker global economic outlook due to recession fears lowers the chances of a significant spike in crude oil prices which have corrected ~24% over the period of April'22 to Sept'22. So, the falling crude oil prices are to certainly benefit the Indian companies which were impacted heavily on the margin front over the past few quarters. Going ahead, this cooling of commodity prices would not only prove to be tailwinds but also aid in containing overall inflation and spur demand.

Maintain a positive view from a longer-term perspective – We believe that India is in a relatively stronger position vs. other Advanced and Emerging economies that are experiencing high inflation and lower growth. A lower devaluation of our currency compared to other emerging nation's currency is also a sign of strength and resilience in our economy. Moreover, our strong fundamentals and external position are expected to drive further investments and cushion us from external shocks, respectively. At current levels, the Nifty is trading at a P/E multiple of 18.5x (Source: Bloomberg) on rolling one-year consensus earnings, which is near its 5-year average of 17.2x. Though the upside may be limited in the near term, the long-term prospects remain intact given the low corporate leverage levels, the better position of financial institutions, and the revival of the investment cycle in India.

Federal Bank

- Federal bank is one of India's largest old generation private sector banks. At the end of Q1 FY'23 the bank had advances of ₹1.51 lakh cr. And deposits of ₹1.83 lakh cr. The bank predominantly has a secured lending book, which helped limit asset quality issues during the Covid 19 pandemic.
- Federal Bank has posted a good set of numbers for Q1FY23 as NII and Advances increased by 13.1%/16.9% YoY. Provisioning for the quarter was down by 74% YoY because of which PAT was up by 64% YoY. GNPA and NNPA ratio improved to 2.69% and 0.94% while restructuring remained stable sequentially at 2.6% of advances.
- Overall asset quality for the quarter improved in Q1FY23, which was in line with our expectations. We expect asset quality to improve further in FY2023 given normalization of the economy. We expect the Federal bank to post NII/PPOP/PAT CAGR of 24.9%/29.1%/42.7% between FY2022-24 and remain positive on the bank.

HDFC Bank

- HDFC bank is India's largest private sector bank with a loan book of ₹ 13.95 lakh crore in Q1FY2023 and deposit base of ₹ 16.04 lakh crore. The Bank has a very well spread-out book with wholesale constituting ~57% of the asset book while retail accounted for the remaining ~44% of the loan book.
- Q1FY2022 numbers were below expectations due to change in portfolio mix towards corporate which resulted in contraction in NIM by 10bps YoY to 4.0%. Moreover, higher opex dragged down PPOP growth. The bank posted NII/PPOP growth of 14.5%/1.5% for the quarter on the back of loan growth of 21.6% YoY.
- While operating numbers were below expectations, the bank posted an improvement in asset quality as GNPA/ NNPA reduced by 19/13bps YoY to 1.28% and 0.35% of advances. Restructured advances at the end of the quarter stood at 0.76% of advances. Given best in class asset quality, expected rebound in retail credit growth we are positive on the bank given reasonable valuations at 2.3x FY24, adjusted book which is at a discount to historical averages.

The bank posted NII growth of 34.8% for the quarter on the back of strong advances growth of 43.3% YoY while NIMs for the quarter stood at 5.9%.

- The company has phased out its CAPEX over the past few years during which it was impacted by industry slowdown in certain periods. With the end to the CAPEX cycle, the favorable outlook in the medium term, and sufficient capacity in place, we believe RKFL volumes would be able to post a volume CAGR of 14% over FY22-24E.

Suprajit Eng.

- Suprajit Engineering (SEL) is the largest supplier of automotive cables to the domestic OEMs with a presence across both 2Ws and PVs. Over the years, SEL has evolved from a single product/client company in India to have a diversified exposure which coupled with its proposition of low-cost player has enabled it to gain market share and more business from existing customers.
- SEL overall has outperformed the Indian Auto industry in recent years aided by market share gains as well as commercialization of new products. The company believes that consolidation of vendors and new client additions would help in maintaining the trend of market/wallet share gains.
- SEL has grown profitably over the years and as a result, it boasts a strong balance sheet (net cash). We believe SEL is a prime beneficiary of a ramp-up in production by OEMs and its newly developed products for EVs would support revenues due to higher kit value. Its premium valuations are justified in our opinion owing to its strong outlook and top-grade quality of earnings.
