

Sensex (58351) / Nifty (17388)

Our market has seen a mild start tracking the mixed global cues and followed a sluggish move for most of the trading session. The benchmark index witnessed a lackluster day of trade until the fag end buying interest boosted the sentiments and soared the index to test the 17400 odd zone. With all such actions, the index maintained its positive stature for the sixth consecutive session and concluded the day a tad below 17400 levels by procuring another 0.25 percent.

Technically, the index continued its northwards journey with a smart recovery from the intraday dip that augurs well for the bulls of D-Street. However, the hint of tentativeness at higher levels should not be overlooked at all. On the technical front, 17450-17500 still holds the sturdy wall for the bulls, and a decisive closure above the same could only trigger fresh longs in the system. Meanwhile, any dip towards the 17200 zone is likely to get bought into, while the sacrosanct support lies around the unfilled gap and psychological mark of the 17000.

Hence, looking at index placements and the recent price action that construes the undertone to favor the bulls, participants are advised to avoid aggressive bets and stay abreast with global and domestic developments. Also, we advocate continuing with a stock-centric approach for better trading opportunities.

Key Levels

Support 1 – 17200	Resistance 1 – 17450
Support 2 – 17000	Resistance 2 – 17500

Nifty Bank Outlook (37989)

Once again the BANKNIFTY had a sluggish start in tandem with benchmark. Unlike Nifty, the banking index kept sulking for the major part of the session. During the first half, it remained under pressure and in the latter one, we saw some modest recovery to conclude tad below the 38000 mark.

The benchmark Nifty had other components to pull it higher; meanwhile the banking space looked a bit nervous. For the coming session, 38200 followed by 38500 remains a sturdy wall and as of now there are no indication of it surpassing the same on the expiry day. Hence, traders are advised to take some money off the table at higher levels. On the flipside, 37850 and 37700 are to be seen as immediate supports.

Key Levels

Support 1 – 37850	Resistance 1 – 38200
Support 2 – 37700	Resistance 2 – 38500

Comments

- The Nifty futures open interest has decreased by 3.93%. and BANK Nifty futures open interest has increased by 0.70% as the market closed at 17388.15.
- The Nifty Aug future closed with a premium of 19.00 point against a premium of 0.85 point in the last trading session. The Sep series closed at a premium of 82.55 point.
- The INDIA VIX decreased from 18.53 to 18.48. At the same time, the PCR-OI of Nifty has decreased from 1.38 to 1.28.
- Few of the liquid counters where we have seen high cost of carry are IDEA, UPL, PNB, ABB and INDHOTEL.

View

- On Wednesday, we had a soft opening which was then followed by some profit booking to drag index towards 17200. Like the previous session, fresh buying emerged at the lower levels to not only recoup all the losses but also close on the positive note. Eventually, we settled the day at the highest point around 17400 with the gains of three tenth of the percent.
- FIIs were net buyers in the cash market segment to the tune of Rs. 765 crores. Simultaneously, in Index futures, they sold worth Rs. 575 crores with a decrease in open interest, indicating long unwinding.
- As far as derivatives segment is concerned, we saw mixed activity in both the key indices in last three sessions; wherein majority of them were on long side. Stronger hands continued to pump in liquidity in equities but preferred exiting long from index futures segment. On index options front, we saw some fresh build-up in 17400-17600 call options. On the contrary, some unwinding was observed in 16200 but as market rebounded in the final hour, meaningful shorts got added in 17300 put strike. Despite this, we still remain a bit skeptical of this last hour surge and hence, would like to observe the overall developments in today's session. As of now, traders are advised not to get carried away and should avoid aggressive bets in key indices.
